Welcome to Jovin Lampshades & Lighting, where we design, create and bring to life great looking lampshades and lighting products! Never heard of Jovin? Most people haven't because we've operated as an OEM, an original equipment manufacturer and wholesaler, since 1978. This means we manufacture product, like lampshades, pendants, table lamps and floor lamps, for other lighting manufacturers and retailers. And you'll never see Jovin's name on any of our products, but, in all likelihood, you've seen or even purchased something manufactured by Jovin.

Where can you see Jovin product? Companies like Ethan Allen and Waterford Crystal feature lampshades manufactured by Jovin. Hotels and resorts, such as The Greenbrier and various Ritz-Carlton resorts have worked with Jovin to update and re-create lampshades for their guestrooms and common areas. Businesses and restaurants like Ruby Tuesday have invested their trust with Jovin to create unique and functional lighting products, bringing them from design to reality. And various design firms around the country come to Jovin time and again for new construction, as well as remodel work.

If you're new to Jovin, take time and look around our site. There's plenty to see! If you're a returning customer, you're sure to find something new within the site. We're constantly updating and adding new product, keeping up with the latest home fashion and color trends.

We hope we can help you with your lampshade and lighting needs, whether it is for a new lighting line or a new construction or remodel project. Contact us today to find out how we can help!